

How to Play Name Bingo

- It's also known as "People Bingo" and "Get to Know You Bingo"
 - Hand out bingo sheets and a pen to each person, then send them off to mingle and find people that fit in the gaps
- Each player can only use another person once on their sheet
 - The game can either finish when someone collects a name for the entire grid
 - Or Alternatively, the game can continue and bingo can be played after everyone has completed their grids:

A leader would start reading out the names of the students and then the students would need to cross off a name when it has been called - if they get 4 in a row - they win!
